

Executive Postings

Position : CDM Project Manager

Location : Singapore & Malaysia

Background

A visionary firm involved in the mitigation of global climate issues and sustainability through the provisions of the Kyoto Protocol and the Clean Development Mechanism (CDM) in particular. Currently overseeing projects in the region, serving the needs of firms seeking carbon neutrality who aim at increasing their corporate profile through corporate social responsibility initiatives

The Position

- Leading project development from conceptualization to the various stages of execution through to certification
- Liaise with the project client, local authorities, international organizations, research institutions and various stakeholders throughout the project life cycle.
- Provide support in the analysis of trends and developments in the carbon trading arena

Ideal Candidate

- Degree in Environmental Science, Engineering and/or recognized qualification in Environmental Auditing
- CDM project management experience of about 2 years or more
- Fluency in oral and written English
- High analytical skills, ability to present to, negotiate and co-ordinate within a multi-cultural, multi-organisational setting
- Ability to travel frequently