

Executive Postings

Position : Energy Efficiency Engineer

Location : Singapore

Background

---

A Singapore based firm focused at engineering smarter buildings with energy efficiency and sustainability as its core focus.

The Position

---

- A member of a team of engineers involved in the various facets of designing and executing building projects where the key focus is systems that optimize energy efficiency.
- Involved in project development from conceptualization to the various stages of execution through to certification
- Liaise with the project client, local authorities, international organizations, research institutions and various stakeholders throughout the project life cycle.

Ideal Candidate

---

- Degree in Mechanical and/or Electrical Engineering
- Recognized qualification or references in energy auditing
- At least 3 years work experience in facilities engineering and mechanical-electrical design
- Proficient in energy software such as DOE2, Carrier E20 etc would be considered an added advantage
- Fluency in oral and written English
- A passion for green energy and sustainability issues